DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-28 allowed.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the prior art of record fail to anticipate or render obvious the following technical features as recited in the highlighted claims:

Referring to claims 1 and 19, the prior art fails to teach or suggest "A method for customizing for customizing a digital camera for at least two particular users of such digital camera by storing at least one firmware component in a programmable memory of the digital camera which controls the operation of the digital camera, the method comprising the steps of ... (c) providing the selected corresponding firmware components to the digital camera to enable the first desired camera feature and to disable the second desired camera feature when the digital camera is used by the first user, and to enable the second desired camera feature and to disable the first desired camera feature when the digital camera is used by the second user".

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Parulski et al. (US 6,629,104) discloses a method for adding personalized metadata to a collection of digital images. The information regarding labeling images based on the user of the camera is relevant material.

Anderson et al. (US 6,134,606) discloses a system for controlling parameters in a hand-held digital camera with selectable parameter scripts. The information regarding a parameter manager allowing a user to adjust the parameters of the camera is relevant material.
